O R D E R:

In the references first read above, disciplinary proceedings were initiated against Sri A.Aatchaiah, Administrative Officer on the allegation that he was in possession of excess unaccounted amount of Rs.10/- and failed to maintain absolute integrity in violation of provisions of APCS (Conduct) Rules 1964 while he was working at the Office of Regional Transport Officer, Gudivada, Krishna District on 30.04.2007.

2. In the representation 2nd read above, Sri A.Aatchaiah, Administrative Officer submitted his written statements of defense contending that during the course of check, the ACB authorities have verified the cash balance available with him and found Rs.10/- excess; that he is physically handicapped and having one left hand only; that with single hand, out of the five ten rupees notes, one spoiled note has been stuck with another ten rupee note and could not be detected and thus he declared Rs.40/- as personal cash whereas when counted by the ACB authorities they detected Rs.50/- and, therefore, charges have been framed against him; that he retired from service; that because of a simply fantastic and negligible case, he denied payment of pension and therefore requested to examine his precarious case keeping in view of his health and physical condition of right hand and arrange to settle pension benefits.

3. Government after careful examination of the matter have convinced with the representation and decided to drop further action against the Sri A.Aatchaiah, Administrative Officer(Retd.).

5. Accordingly, Government hereby drop further action against Sri A.Aatchaiah, Administrative Officer(Retd.) in the matter.

6. The Transport Commissioner, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad shall take further action in the matter accordingly.
